

Proof of Financial Support

for International Students & Dependents

You must demonstrate proof of funding to pay for estimated expenses for you and any dependent spouse or minor children you may bring with you to the United States. Degree-seeking students should provide proof of funding to cover their first year of studies, and exchange students should provide proof to cover the duration of their visit. You must submit this completed form and all supporting financial documents in order to receive your visa paperwork (Form I-20 or DS-2019).

Acceptable proof of funding includes one or more of the following:

- Bank statement for checking, savings, or time deposit account (including account holder's name, balance amount, currency type, and date of statement) that is less than 6 months old
- Letter from bank manager (including account holder's name, balance amount, currency type, and date of letter) less than 6 months old
- Loan confirmation letter (including loan holder's name, loan amount, currency type, and effective date) for specified semester
- Scholarship or sponsorship award letter (including your name, scholarship amount/inclusions, currency type, and effective date)

No other types of documents (salary statements, property deeds, etc.) will be accepted.

All documents must be in English (or be accompanied by an official English translation) and issued within the past six months.
